Planes, Ship Hit Big Red Port

Follow Up Great Raids Near Siberia

Seoul (AP)—The Navy yesterday followed up its massive bombing raids on Siberia's doorstep with smashing blows by air and sea at the big Korean port of Chongjin.

The one-two smash, which carried the war to within view of Russian guards on the Siberia-Korean frontier, was by far the biggest all-Navy show of the Korean War.

Chongjin, largest port in all North Korea, lies 50 miles south of the southern tip of Siberia's Maritime Province.

Smoke still rose from a burning refinery near the Siberian border and from a frontier iron works farther west—plastered in morning Navy strikes—when planes lifted from three U. S. carriers and headed for unsuspecting Chongjin.

Waves of warplanes from the carriers Princeton, Essex and Boxer roared over the port, unloading their bombs, rockets and bullets on an iron works, an electric plant and factories.

While rain rained on Chongjin from the skies, the U. S. heavy cruiser Bremerton swung in from the sea and opened up on the port with its eight and five-inch guns.

The pilots who worked over Chongjin had carried out the daring raids in the morning on the synthetic oil refinery at Aoji, just eight miles west of the Siberian border, and on iron mine works and a hydrogen plant at Musan near the Manchurian-Korean border about 85 miles southwest of Aoji.

The Navy said a record 338 sorties (individual flights) were hurled against the three targets, making it the largest Navy air show of the war.

Navy dive bombers who set huge fires in the Aoji refinery could look down on Russian soil to the east. They reported they saw two MIG jets, possibly from the Soviet Air Force, flying about 10 miles north of the Siberian border.

In turn, Russian border guards could hear the explosions at Aoji clearly and see the great black plumes of oil smoke rising from the stricken refinery.

Associated Press photographer Fred Waters aboard the Boxer reported the Navy planes "virtually eliminated" the plants at Aoji and Musan.

The Aoji and Musan targets never had been hit before, although Chongjin has been raided. Allied planes never had struck so close to Russian soil before. The closest previously was a superfort raid on Rashin (Najin), 18 miles down the coast from the Siberian border, early in the war.

Cordell Hull Still Critical
Washington (AP)—Cordell Hull was still on the critical list last night but was reported slightly improved from cerebral thrombosis attack.

The 80-year-old statesman and legislator—secretary of state for three of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's terms—entered the Navy Medical Center at nearby Bethesda, Md., Friday night.

Jets On Display
Farnborough, England (AP)—Britain put on a display yesterday of her galaxy of jet planes and showed off her latest fighters by ordering them to "go slow" at about 700 miles an hour.

Winds Ranging Up To 50 MPH Flatten Crops As Tropical Storm Lashes Local Region

Diminishing winds of a hurricane which swept into Pennsylvania out of the South yesterday flattened gardens, beat down sections of big corn plantings, disturbed other crops and brought out crews of local power companies to repair damages.

Winds which rose to steady 40-mile-an-hour blasts with gusts ranging up to 50 miles, accompanied by torrential rain, cut down on a few power lines, slashed dead-wood from trees, but failed to do any serious damage throughout the region.

Ted Henning, local manager of Metropolitan Edison Co., said at 5:30 p. m. yesterday, "we've cleaned up all our problems."

Henning said a major 33,000-volt line feeding power into this region from Easton was downed, but swiftly repaired and restored to service.

One of the company's primary conductors on Grand St., East Stroudsburg, was also cut out by the storm as well as a line of the utility back of Marshalls Creek on the Wooddale road.

Some buckwheat was also flattened. Biggest complaint came from gardeners where heavy rain and strong winds flattened late sweet corn and other smaller crops.

Employee Suffocates At Club When Mattress Catches Fire

Hawley—A young Forest Lake Club employee suffocated in his sleep yesterday when the mattress he was lying on caught fire from a cigarette. The man, employed as a laborer at the club for six weeks, was Gerald Kyser, 19, North Valley, Pa. He was found dead on his charred bed at 7:15 a. m.

State police at Milford said Kyser had turned in about 12:10 a. m. yesterday in the two-story frame building which houses employees of the private club. The club is located about 10 miles north of here.

At 7:15 a. m. caretaker, William Rowe, saw smoke coming from under the door of Kyser's room. He opened the door and was "almost knocked over by the fumes," police said.

The caretaker dragged Kyser from the room, found his body already growing stiff, police said. Then Rowe grabbed an Indian hand pump and extinguished the embers on the mattress and bedclothing. There was no other damage.

Police and County Coroner Walter Degan investigated, and issued a verdict of accidental suffocation due to smoke. The body was released to the Teeter funeral home, Hawley.

Miners Go Back To Pits

Pittsburgh (AP)—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers return to work today, ending a 10-day memorial holiday that cut the nation's coal stocks by more than 10 million tons.

A few mines scheduled first work for their men on last night's midnight turn but most of the workers are slated to report at 8 a. m. today. There was no indication the men would not report for work.

Earlier, there had been rumors some of the workers wanted to prolong their holiday until Sept. 30 when UMW contracts expire for 475,000 diggers in the bituminous (soft) and anthracite (hard) coal fields.

Lewis ordered the men out Aug. 23 for 10 days, saying the period was to memorialize 41 deaths in coal mines since early July and to give officials a chance to check safety regulations in their mines.

The holiday came in the midst of Lewis' negotiations with the industry for new contracts and possibly halting the effect of slightly strengthening the union's hand in bargaining by reducing the amount of coal above ground.

Rainfall Totals 4.54 Inches At Mount Pocono

Monroe County caught the fringe of a hurricane which swept Pennsylvania yesterday, and there was water a-plenty to show for it.

Rains soaked into the earth and blackened newly-harrowed hills in the farming section during the night and throughout most of the day.

On a score of roads the water cascaded across concrete lanes and heavy Labor Day traffic threw up sheets of spray in passing. At other points the rushing rivulets washed deep gullies in dirt roads.

At Mount Pocono airport, H. John Davis measured one of the heaviest falls in the State—4.54 inches from 5 p. m. Sunday to 5 p. m. yesterday.

Aside from road gullying, however, little water damage was reported and apparently no one was flooded out of his home.

At Milford bridge last night authorities said the Delaware had risen only a few hundredth of an inch in six hours. The river at that point was measured Sunday as the lowest in about four years.

Bridge police at Dingmans Ferry said the rains had caused a rise of about two feet there, which brought the water mark only up to "normal low." The rise last night was proceeding "very slowly," police said.

Farther downstream, at Portland bridge, police said the water had gone up 3.30 feet over the "normal low" between 8 a. m. and 11 p. m. The rise was going slowly there, too.

Delaware Bridge police said the river had risen about two feet from 4 p. m. to 11 p. m., putting the level at 2.85 feet above normal. The rise was a bit faster, but police predicted the river would rise only a "couple more feet" before starting to drop off again.

Heavy rainfall and strong winds were reported elsewhere in the eastern half of Pennsylvania. In the south-central fruit belt, some growers reported tree-ripened peaches had been ruined as the big wind stripped the trees of the fruit. Truck gardens also were damaged.

Wet Weather Mars Holiday

By The Associated Press
Labor Day holiday pleasure seekers ran into plenty of wet weather and windstorms in the central and eastern portions of the nation yesterday.

Disturbances at the tail end of the tropical hurricane lashed the eastern seaboard, particularly in the areas around Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, and parts of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York.

Showers and thunderstorms also occurred from eastern Kansas northeastward through northern Missouri, most of Iowa and northern Illinois, and into Michigan. Strong wind also caused damage in some of these central areas.

Meanwhile the second tropical storm of the season was located Monday by a Navy hurricane-hunting plane about 350 miles northeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico.

A freak tornado—a by-product of the hurricane that lashed the Carolinas—unroofed houses, smashed automobiles and knocked out power lines yesterday in the Virginia area bordering Washington.

Wind velocity reached 70 to 100 miles an hour at times, the weather bureau estimated.

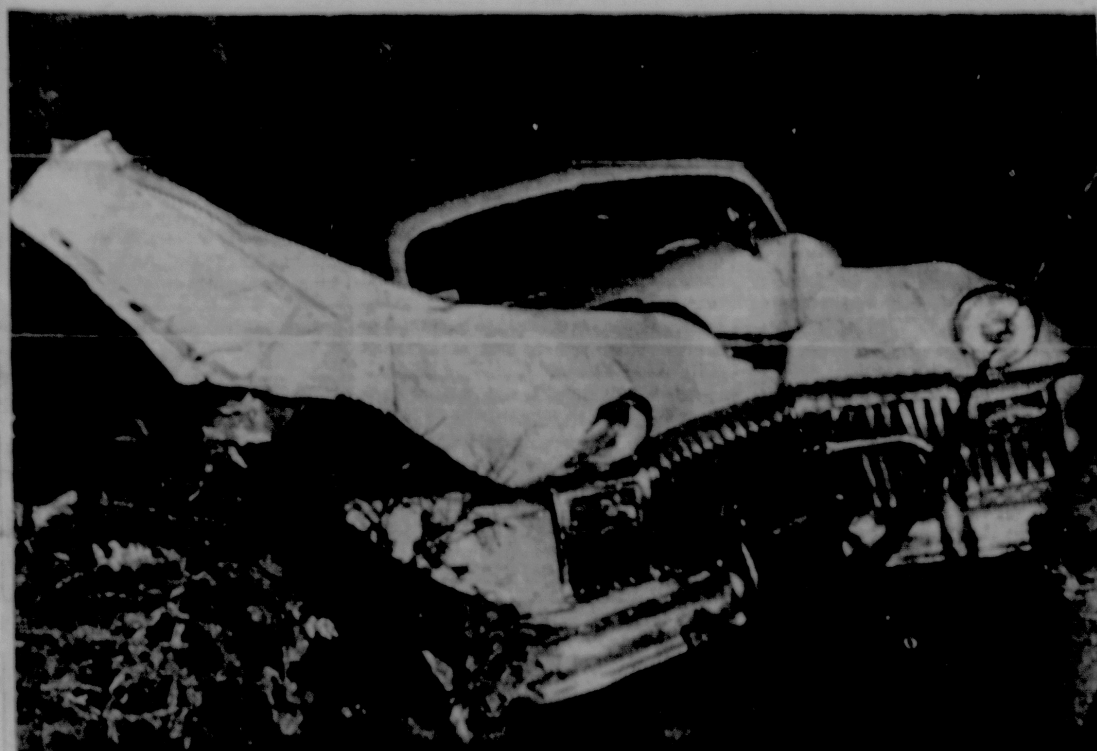

Gusts up to 63 miles an hour hit the nation's capital and rainfall totaled 2.59 inches in less than six hours.

The tornado hit Franconia, Va., destroying one house, unroofing two others, and tossing one automobile nearly 100 feet.

Scores of families were evacuated from their homes in Maryland towns along the Anacostia River near Washington, because of high waters.

Conshohocken Driver Suffers Fatal Attack; Auto Swerves Off Highway, Snaps Off Pole

Resaca—A car smashed a telephone pole after its driver suffered a fatal heart attack on Route 402 two miles north of here at 4:25 p. m. Sunday.

The stricken driver was Richard E. Griebel, 56, of 150 E. Tenth Ave., Conshohocken, Pa., a glass blower by trade. His wife, Helen, was in the car at the time. She escaped with bruises of the right knee.

Pfc. Evan Chaplin of the Stroudsburg station said Griebel was driving South at the time. He had been visiting brothers in Carbondale and was returning home.

According to Mrs. Griebel, her husband suffered the attack without warning. The car went out of control, ran off the right side of the highway, smashed a section from a telephone pole, went on to strike several trees before coming to a stop.

Acting Coroner Herbert G. Bonser, East Stroudsburg justice of the peace, released the body to the Conshohocken funeral home.

Damage to the car was estimated at $300, mostly to the front end. Griebel was born in Germany and came to America as a youth. Services will be announced by the W. T. Ardell funeral home, Conshohocken.

Surviving are his wife; mother, Mrs. Clara Griebel, Carbondale; two brothers, Walter and Ernest, of Carbondale; three sisters, Mrs. Thomas Duffy, Endicott, N. Y.; Mrs. Wallace Ludwig, Kingston, N. Y.; and Mrs. Walter Schneider, Mount Pocono.

Death Tolls Near Record

By The Associated Press
Labor Day holiday accidents claimed 446 lives—351 of them in traffic with the tally far from complete.

And holiday drivers still on the road last night got this grim warning from Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council:

"Unless drivers heed their good judgment and common sense, we may pile up an all-time high in traffic deaths for any Labor Day."

Dearborn's statement came when the tally showed the nation suffered 34 drownings and 61 deaths by miscellaneous accidents, plus the big traffic toll. Traffic always is the big killer.

Eisenhower Pledges Civil Service Workers Square Deal; Truman Berates Opposition

By The Associated Press
President Truman and the Democrat who wants to succeed him in the White House, Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, kicked off the fall campaign for their party yesterday with a pair of speeches in Milwaukee and Detroit.

The two Democratic leaders had the center of the stage on Labor Day, but Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican presidential nominee, was keeping his powder dry for a two-day assault on Democratic strongholds in the South.

Truman told a CIO-AFL rally in Milwaukee that the Republican record is one "of constant nagging opposition to all the great progressive measures that our country has adopted in the past 20 years."

Stevenson, addressing a large crowd in Detroit's Cadillac Square, urged that the Taft-Hartley labor law be dumped and replaced with an act containing "a minimum of law" controlling labor and management relations.

General Eisenhower campaigns through Georgia and Florida today and speaks in Birmingham, Ala., and Little Rock, Ark., tomorrow.

His running mate, Sen. Richard Nixon of California, was busily preparing for a whirlwind sweep through New England starting today and winding up Saturday.

Eisenhower made an informal talk to the National Association of Letter Carriers in New York yesterday and promised all government civil service workers that they would get a square deal if he were elected president.

Eisenhower informed the letter carriers that he was for a more efficient postal service, with more frequent deliveries of mail. On job security, he added:

"No one could say I was fair if on the instant that the Republican party went into power I should authorize or condone any discharge of a hard-working civil service employee."

Takes Issue With Ike's Foreign Policy

Detroit (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson bid vigorously yesterday for Michigan's 20 vital electoral votes with a denunciation of the Taft-Hartley Act and sharpest criticism of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's foreign policy views.

In a five-city tour of Michigan, Stevenson offered a five-point program for replacing the Taft-Hartley Act and declared that Eisenhower—his Republican presidential opponent—had raised dangerous speculation about possible "reckless action" by America in Europe.

In the industrial center of Detroit, Stevenson laid down—under a broiling mid-day sun that wilted the crowd gathered in Cadillac Square—his own proposal for scrapping the "biased and politically inspired" Taft-Hartley Act and writing a new labor law.

Crowd estimates in Cadillac Square ranged from a 15,000 figure offered by three police inspectors to the 40,000 estimate of Deputy Police Superintendent Kennedy Lawrence.

If the Detroit throng's response to his Labor Day appeal was disappointing to his supporters, Stevenson struck pay dirt in suburban Hamtramck.

There he was greeted at the limits of the 95 per cent Democratic city by a uniformed squadron of CIO United Auto Workers. And his sharp criticism of Eisenhower, made from a crude plank platform in a city park, was greeted with howls of delight.

The Illinois governor charged, that in his New York speech to the American Legion last week, Eisenhower had aroused speculation that if the general were elected "some reckless action might ensue in an attempt to liberate peoples of Eastern Europe from Soviet tyranny."

Eisenhower said the United States would never rest until the satellite nations regained their freedom from Russia.

Stevenson said he hoped no "false campaign issue is built on the hopes and fears of these suffering people and on the anxieties of all Americans for their liberation."

He laid down five general principles for a new law on which he said he believes labor and management can agree "if they will throw their guns on the table."

His proposals for a new labor law were:

One—"The law must accept labor unions, like employer corporations, as the responsible representatives of their members' interests."

Two—Labor unions "must conform to standards of fair conduct and equal protection in the exercise of their stewardship."

Three—"The new law must 'outlaw' unfair bargaining practices by companies or unions," and must forbid jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts.

Four—Labor injunctions must be outlawed because "the tyrannical power to have men and women ordered back to work in smothered silence has no place in today's labor law."

Five—Some way must be found to settle national emergency disputes since the United States cannot "tolerate shutdowns which threaten our national safety, even that of the free world" because "the right to bargain collectively does not include a right to stop the national economy."

Robber Demands $10, Refuses Additional $150

Philadelphia (AP)—Gasoline station attendant Thomas Seroghen told yesterday the story of a hold-up man who knew what he wanted, got it, and said "no more."

This was Seroghen's report to police: A man wearing a soldier's uniform entered about 1:40 a. m., drew a knife and announced "I want $10."

Seroghen pulled out a roll of bills totaling $150 and shakily handed it to him.

"I want $10, no more," said the robber, Seroghen peered off a ten-spot, handed it over, the man grabbed it and ran away.

No Change Foreseen

Washington (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted yesterday that meat supplies for the remainder of the year will be about the same as they were a year ago and that prices will make "no marked change from present figures."

Joint School Expects 400 Enrollment

Newfoundland—An enrollment of 400 students is anticipated at the Greene-Dresher-Sterling school, Joseph Jacobs, supervising principal, announced last night.

Opening session of the 1952-53 term is scheduled for Wednesday at 9 a.m.

Should the 400 mark be attained, it will represent the largest enrollment in the school's history, Jacobs said. Previous high was 336 in 1950. Last year 388 answered the opening bell.

There are two changes in the school's 16-teacher faculty. John Strupcewski replaces Harold Wild as music supervisor and Clayton Northrup fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of Carroll Fetherman as teacher of vocational agriculture.

Strupcewski, a native of Duryea, Pa., is a graduate of Mansfield State Teachers College and an Army veteran of World War Two. He has been conducting a program of individual and unit instruction in music here during the summer months.

Northrup returns here as agriculture instructor after having taught as replacement for Fetherman during the latter's sabbatical leave three years ago. He is a native of Dalton, Pa., having graduated from the Pennsylvania State College.

Jacobs announced that the school cafeteria will open on Monday, September 8. Sponsored by the local chapter of the Parent Teachers Association, the cafeteria will be under the supervision of Miss Florence Grimm, home economics instructor. Mrs. Harry Simon, Mrs. Myrtle Waltz and Mrs. Wardell Robacker make up the kitchen staff.

There will be two changes in the school calendar as previously announced. There will be no school on Wednesday, September 10, to allow students to attend the Wayne County fair and school will resume following the Easter vacation on Tuesday, April 7, instead of April 8 as originally planned.

The corrected calendar follows:

September 3, school opens; September 10, recess for Wayne County fair; November 24-December 1, recess for county institute and Thanksgiving; December 24-January 4, Christmas vacation; April 2-6, Easter vacation; June 5, graduation.

Renovation and improvements to the school plant during the summer months include the remodeling of the high school basement to provide for a room in which art classes will be held, painting of a number of rooms and corridors and the replacement of 60 stationary seats with modern, moveable units.

The paved play area at the school, made possible through a community effort headed by the Newfoundland Rotary Club, will be ready for use when the students return. The area, 80 by 130 feet, contains two basketball courts and a tennis court as well as space for other games.

15 Physicians Press Campaign Against Cancer

Fifteen Monroe County physicians already have pledged their cooperation in the new five-point cancer detection program being planned for the benefit of local citizens.

Dr. John Rumsey, president of the Monroe County Medical Society, said the physicians will start immediately to help carry out the program set up by the Commission on Cancer of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, the Cancer Society, and the Cancer Division of the State Health Department.

The program is designed primarily to reduce the high cancer death rate. It will consist of examinations of the skin, oral cavity, breasts, rectum and female genitalia, which are the five parts of the body in which cancer is most commonly found.

Any additional information concerning the five-point detection program, Dr. Rumsey added, can be obtained by contacting the Monroe County Unit of the American Cancer Society, 615 Sarah St., Stroudsburg.

Eight Injured In Collision; $3,000 Damage

Marshall's Creek—Eight persons were injured and $3,000 damages done when two cars collided head-on at 4 a.m. yesterday on Route 200 four miles east of here.

The injured:

Victor Valanda, 25, Brooklyn, N. Y., driver of one car; and his passengers, Joseph Caputo, 21, Brooklyn, Florence Grogan, 21, Woodside, Long Island, and Rosemary Kern, 19, Astoria, Long Island.

Phillip Nangiazillano, 30, Newark, N. J., driver of the other car; and his passengers, Salvatore Petrosino, 25, Newark, Rosemary Mandato, 17, Brooklyn, and Esther Prioso, 21, Brooklyn.

All of the injured were treated at the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg. Two were admitted and the others released.

Admitted were Florence Grogan, with a possible skull fracture, and Rosemary Mandato, leg injuries and face cuts.

Pfc. Evan Chaplin of the Stroudsburg station said his investigation showed that Valanda evidently fell asleep at the wheel. His car veered over to the wrong side of the highway and collided with the other car.

Sen. Crowe On Committee To Greet Ike

Sen. Montgomery F. Crowe has been named by William J. Hamilton, Jr., chairman of the East-Central Republican Campaign Committee, to the reception committee for Gen. Eisenhower's campaign kick-off in Philadelphia Sept. 4.

Hamilton, former Secretary of Revenue in Pennsylvania, was formerly manager of the Taft forces in Philadelphia. He now heads the drive for Eisenhower in East-Central region of the state and is directing matters connected with the GOP nominee's appearance Thursday in Philadelphia.

Eisenhower will address the Republican State Committee in the Broadwood Hotel the afternoon of Sept. 4. The major rally will be staged in Convention Hall that night.

As a member of the official reception committee, Sen. Crowe will participate in the formalities of greeting Eisenhower, a street tour of the city and the nominee's escort and presentation at Convention Hall.

"This is considered Eisenhower's kick-off," Crowe said, "and already there are special trains, buses and motor cavalcades arranged for the Convention Hall meeting."

County Falls Behind In Blood Giving

Monroe County for the first time is falling behind in its blood donor program. LeRoy Mikels, Red Cross county chairman, said yesterday in announcing the visit of the mobile blood donor unit at the Elks Club, East Stroudsburg, on Friday, September 5, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The extreme heat of the July visit, the cancellation of the August visit account in part for the fact that Monroe County is now behind last year's record and this year's quota. The local blood donor program has always been a model for others in the district and Mr. Mikels is hopeful that residents will answer this new plea in large numbers to keep the county's credit in the blood bank solvent.

Appointments may be made by calling Red Cross headquarters, 357, or donors may stop in at the Elks Club during the open hours next Friday.

Under the National Blood Program, first priority will be given to blood collections for the Korean wounded; second to blood for patients in civilian, veterans and military hospitals in this country; and third to collecting blood to build a safe plasma and derivative reserve for national defense or emergency civilian use.

On the local scene, Mr. Mikels pointed out the many recent cases in which blood sent here from the Blood Bank has been a vital factor in saving lives.

Registrars To Wind Up Job

Special registrars will be in the wind-up end of their efforts to sign up as many potential voters as possible when they sit Wednesday night at Mountainhome and Snyder's election houses.

The hours will be from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Snyder's election house; and at Mountainhome, from 4 to 6 p.m., and from 7 to 10 p.m.

On Thursday night special registration will be held for the last time on the "cross-county" tour by registrars. This will be at the Third ward election house in East Stroudsburg.

Registrants may also sign up daily at the courthouse, in the commissioners' office.

There is no special registration tonight.

Geologist, Badly Burned In July, Leaves Hospital

The New Jersey geologist who was nearly electrocuted by a dangling power line in a Delaware Water Gap quarry two months ago left the General Hospital in East Stroudsburg in time to spend Labor Day weekend at his summer home in Rhode Island.

He was Meredith Johnson, who flew in a chartered plane from Monroe County to his summer home. Johnson was visited here by his son before flying home. The son, a paratrooper, left for Korea yesterday.

When the accident occurred, July 12, Johnson was accompanied by another geologist, Henry Herpers Jr., Pennington, N. J. Herpers

Four Persons Suffer Hurts In Two-Car Crash During Fog

Brodheadsville—Damages of $1,500 were caused and four persons were injured when a car tried to pass on Route 115 Sunday and collided with an on-coming vehicle in the fog nine miles north of here.

Injured were: Mrs. Laura Deubler, 44, Blakeslee, driver of the south-bound auto, back bruises and fractured right foot; her son, Les, 15, face cuts and fractured right ankle; another son, Nelson, 17, severe face cuts, and Mrs. Catherine Filippelli, 56, Newark, N. J., passenger in the car driven by her husband, Elmer, fractured right hip.

All of the injured were taken to the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg, for treatment. All were admitted.

The accident occurred about 8:55 p.m., according to Brodheadsville State police. Filippelli, driving north, was the driver who tried to pass in the face of on-coming traffic, police said. Vision was extremely limited because of the fog, police said.

was killed by contact with the wire. Johnson suffered severe burns.

Hospital Checks Disclose Girl Suspect Free Of Polio; Doctor, Foundation Praised

Stroudsburg health authorities breathed sighs of relief yesterday and in the same breaths were swift in their praise for a doctor and the Monroe County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for their prompt action Saturday on a polio suspect.

Sharon Werkheiser, five, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Werkheiser, 21 N. Sixth St., Stroudsburg, was committed to St. Luke's Hospital, Bethlehem, Sunday morning as a polio suspect at the direction of Dr. Cyril L. Velkoff, 43 N. Sixth Street.

Dr. Clement E. Hanlon, orthopedic surgeon, widely known here because of his work in crippled children's and adults' clinics, both diagnostic and surgical, took over the Werkheiser case.

Only after exhausting all the tests and other diagnostic checks, did authorities at St. Luke's come up with an announcement that the child was free of polio.

Sharon came home to her parents and family yesterday.

Removal of the child to St. Luke's was accompanied by immediate action by Samuel Van Gorden, Stroudsburg health officer, operating under medical authority, to quarantine the Werkheiser home.

Mr. Van Gorden went further. He covered all of the immediate vicinity with words of caution to parents of all children who assembled in the neighborhood to play together. Parents were grateful for his service and, once alerted, took all required precautions.

Once the child was released, the quarantine was removed and there was a return to normalcy in the neighborhood.

Presidential Shadow-Boxing

From New Rochelle Standard-Star

The highly literate Adlai Stevenson turned to Samuel Johnson yesterday for the text of his sermon on morality. He quoted the line: "Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel." And there was no doubt in any listener's or reader's mind that the "scoundrel" Mr. Stevenson had in mind is U. S. Senator Joe McCarthy of Wisconsin.

Thus, as in the speech two days earlier by General Dwight D. Eisenhower also before the Legion convention, there was general denunciation of Evil and Fear and Prejudice as there was also praise for Freedom and Justice and Peace.

Just when are these two candidates for the highest office in the world going to quit shadow boxing and take grips on the real issues of the campaign?

Mr. Stevenson is not running against Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin, any more than General Eisenhower is running against Senator Moody of Michigan. Each candidate will have members of his own party with whom he cannot be in total agreement on some issues.

But this is a campaign of Stevenson versus Eisenhower and no side shows should be permitted to take the spotlight off the main contest.

What the people of America want is a clearly defined difference between the two Presidential candidates so that they may then be able to determine accurately which of the two is more to their individual liking.

As to the so-called issue of "McCarthyism," which the Democrats with some questionable Republican support seem determined to make a major smear, we would be more impressed if this were accompanied by an equally vociferous denunciation of "Hissism." For it will not be forgotten, we are sure, that had it not been for Mr. McCarthy we would probably still have Alger Hiss, the convicted Communist spy-traitor, directing important State Department policies. Scratch an anti-McCarthyite deeply enough and you will nearly always find a pro-Hissite. For our part, we prefer Mr. McCarthy.

But, as we seek to emphasize, this is not germane to the real issue, which is the distinction between General Eisenhower and Governor Stevenson. Wherein do they differ sharply? Where do they contradict each other? What is for one and the other against?

These are the questions the American voters want answered. And they are questions to which answers have not yet been given by either.

Ten Is Enough

As a general thing, we are opposed to bureaucratic interference with free enterprise.

However, an exception must be made in the case of Myrtle Beach, S. C., where under a new law, "no realtor is to have on display on any property more than ten 'for sale' signs at any one time."

They are making a movie on one of the Samoan Islands, and the natives are behaving like movie fans everywhere, a reporter finds, except that they call all the actors "Gary Cooper." And they do not ask for autographs because they can't read.

That's odd. People here ask for them anyway.

These Days - - By George E. Sokolsky

The Institute of Pacific Relations, Gerard Swope, Chairman of Board of Trustees of the Institute of Pacific Relations, has addressed a letter to his members in which he states:

"I have read the (McCarthy) Report myself, and I consider it to be extremely biased and unfair. By innuendo and by omission or distortion of evidence it conveys a thoroughly misleading and prejudiced account of the I. P. R. Some of you may feel that there have been instances of inappropriate conduct or poor judgment on the part of I. P. R. officers or employees in the past and these actions may well be open to legitimate criticism after a fair examination of the attendant circumstances."

I have not only read the report of the McCarthy Committee's investigation into the Institute of Pacific Relations, but every word of the 14 volumes of testimony and all the documentary evidence attached to them.

I should have imagined that Mr. Swope would have read all the evidence because the report leans over backwards in avoiding prejudice, whereas the evidence, in detail, provides damaging proof of the complicity of officers and employees of the Institute in the Communist conspiracy.

It is the utmost irresponsibility to speak of instances of "inappropriate conduct or poor judgment." Men are responsible for their conduct; institutions are responsible for the men they employ. This cannot be ducked on the assumption that it is possible for the best of us, as for the worst, to make mistakes. We usually have to pay for our mistakes.

The McCarthy Committee Report had this to say on the Institute of Pacific Relations:

"The Institute of Pacific Relations has not maintained the character of an objective, scholarly, and research organization."

"The IPR has been considered by the American Communist Party and by Soviet officials as an instrument of Communist policy, propaganda and military intelligence."

"The IPR disseminated and sought to popularize false information including information originating from Soviet and Communist sources."

"A small core of officials and staff members carried the main burden of IPR activities and directed its administration and policies."

"Members of the small core of officials and staff members who controlled IPR were either Communist or pro-Communist."

"There is no evidence that the large majority of its members supported the IPR for any reason except to advance the professed research and scholarly purposes of the organization."

"Most members of the IPR, and most members of its Board of Trustees, were inactive and obviously without any influence over the policies of the organization and the conduct of its affairs."

"IPR activities were made possible largely through the financial support of American industrialists, corporations, and foundations, the majority of whom were not familiar with the inner workings of the organization."

"The effective leadership of the IPR often sought to deceive IPR contributors and supporters as to the true character and activities of the organization."

"Neither the IPR nor any substantial body of those associated with it as executive officers, trustees or major financial contributors, has ever made any serious and objective investigation of the charges that the IPR was infiltrated by Communists and was used for pro-Communist and pro-Soviet purposes."

"The names of eminent individuals were by design used as a respectable and impressive screen for the activities of the IPR inner core, and as a defense when such activities came under scrutiny."

Every statement herewith quoted can be fully substantiated by the evidence in the 14 volumes of the McCarthy Committee hearings.

Mr. Swope does not refer to a single item in those hearings in this letter. He does not call attention to a single error. He does not specify a single injustice by the committee. He does not defend anyone accused by the committee.

His answer to the enormous work done by the McCarthy Committee is this:

"... I am glad to say that many IPR members and large corporations (among them the Standard Vacuum Oil Company, the International General Electric Company, the National City Bank, the Bankers Trust Company, and the National Cash Register Company) have in recent weeks shown their support by renewing their generous contributions..."

McCarthy Committee might now inquire why an organization that has "disseminated and sought to popularize false information including information originating from Soviet and Communist sources," should be tax-exempt or why contributions to it should be deductible as a charity. That might also be considered by the Cox Committee.

Try And Stop Me

Doctor Diesel of Dunwoodie operated recently while a fire was raging in a building just across the street from the hospital. "Be sure all the blinds are drawn," ordered Dr. Diesel. "We don't want our patient to come out of the ether and think the operation was a failure."

Washington Report

—by Fulton Lewis, Jr.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Dwight D. Eisenhower and his GOP running mate, Senator Richard Nixon, of California, are the two most neglected politicians in the nation today.

Not only are they being ignored by large segments inside their own political party, but the Democrats have also done little except yawn in response to speeches made by the two nominees.

In fact, at this stage of the race, the Democratic National Committee has campaigned largely against Senator Joseph R. McCarthy, of Wisconsin, and on behalf of Gen. George C. Marshall, who the Democrats feel has been grievously wronged by the Senate.

Marshall is not running for any public office, although he is a skilled politician who labored in the Democratic vineyards for both President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Mr. Truman. His record as a patriot and great soldier is not being defended daily, however, not by the Democratic National Committee, but by the Democratic nominee, Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

There is need to examine the reason for this. Marshall is vulnerable due to the flax he helped promote in China. He wanted to arm, train and put into the Chinese Nationalist Government Chinese Communist troops, he was also running the military when the flow of arms and ammunition to our ally, Chiang Kai-Shek, suddenly dried up.

Senator McCarthy pointed this out with some vehemence on the floor of the Senate, and later compiled Marshall's record in a book. The General's record, as disclosed in the publication, is a devastating recitation of strategic blunders. Neither Marshall nor any of his current defenders have attempted to reply to McCarthy's allegations in this publication.

They just keep on shouting that Marshall is a soldier, statesman and patriot. So he is. But on the record as it now stands he is a frequently erroneous one.

If Marshall is responsible for the debacle in China the question naturally arises as to why the Democrats are determined to defend him. They haven't been very busy defending President Truman's cronies who were caught with their hands in the federal till or with their arms full of milk coats, just Marshall.

The facts are that Marshall is the only target of McCarthy who is known nationwide. He is considered to be a hero in many parts of the country. He is, in other words, the only victim of McCarthy's exposure who has not been examined in detail concerning his actions in China and elsewhere. Every other McCarthy target, when subjected to Senatorial investigation or Loyalty Board scrutiny, has been revealed as somewhat less than clean. In fact, most of those on the receiving end of McCarthy's black busts have either quietly resigned their government positions or have been shuffled into the back shop while Loyalty Boards review once again their strange behavior and stranger playmates.

Marshall, of course, is not disloyal. He is, however, associated with a tragic U. S. diplomatic failure, and it was for this that McCarthy skinned him on the Senate floor.

In selecting to fight out the issue of McCarthy and Communism in the government on the basis of the attack on Marshall, the Democrats are on the safest ground. They can't defend Owen Lattimore, Joseph Barnes, Esther and Stephen Bronnauer, or William Remington or the others. But Marshall is a hero created by President Roosevelt's World War II. He is likely to remain one despite his critics. In fact, the Democrats are sure that Marshall's record and background contain nothing that may prove embarrassing on closer scrutiny.

The party had its fingers burned on Alger Hiss. Republicans haven't yet figured out what to do with the issue of McCarthy and Marshall, except run for cover. Both Eisenhower and Nixon proved gun shy when the Wisconsin Senator got hot and heavy. Nobody thought of asking Stevenson or the other party spokesmen about the Communist creep McCarthy has smoked out of the government, with the help, by the way, of Democratic Senator Pat McCarran, of Nevada. Help McCarthy did not get when Ex-Senator Millard Tydings whitewashed the charges.

Tydings is still roaming the hills of his home state, Maryland, trying to vindicate his treatment of McCarthy and the Communists on the federal payroll. He is a grim reminder to his party as to the potency of McCarthyism.

Sallies In Our Alley: When George Jessel (a Democrat) informed his ex-chief Zanuck (an Eisenhower roofer) that he would tour the country making speeches for Stevenson, Zanuck quipped: "How appropriate that they selected Hollywood's official orator at funerals!"... Mayor LaGuardia's pungent poke: "My opponents can depend on it that I am always a gentleman except in a fight."

Midtown Vignette: Charles Cerny, of the dance team at the Copa, is a sensitive chap of serious bent... He often talks of giving up show business for a monastic life... One recent midnight he and his partner were trying their best to entertain the folks when a ringleader began gabbling noisily, giggling and creating a rumpus... It so distracted the dancers (and the audience) that their act was wrecked... The usually mild Cerny stamped off the floor (and almost in tears) told Sonny Howard (the first person he met): "May God forgive me—but damn that fellow..." A few hours later, the offending oleo hero Mickey Jolke (and his armory) were arrested on vice charges... Moral: Never Fool Around With Gene Autry!

Memos of a Midnighter: Latest O'Dwyer buzz: That an airline subsidiary in Mexico was just peddled to a Mexican group representing the Ambassador... Rhumband pilot Chuy Reyes and Betty McNeil are honeymooning... Gov. Stevenson's cousin, Peggy Ewing Mechling, is the betrothed of J. Richardson, II, of Gaylord, Va... The bookies rate Marciano a clinch to be the next world's heavyweight champ... Maurice Zolov and Ivy Mansfield clashed in Lindy's over the author's essay (in the Satevee) which credits another CBS producer with discovering Sam Levenson (Maurice? Not in a hadd?)... The New Year's Eve tickets for "WWish You WWhere Here" will be ready this week... Last week's bluff-of-the-century agonized the announcer on the Crime Syndicated TV show. The commercial was for Shick. You could read his agony when he realized it... But the boob of the week was pulled by Rayburn & Finch. Took them off the air for a minute. (Whew!)

Looking At Life —by Erich Brandeis

A lot of people seem to be under the impression that graft, corruption, inefficiency, waste, are evils peculiar to Washington, D. C., and they are confined to that city under some kind of exclusive franchise.

These evils are as old as the sixth chapter of Genesis which reads in part:

"God looked upon the earth and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted its way upon the earth."

In the early part of the 19th century quite a span between Genesis and this—Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote:

"Government has come to be a trade, and is managed solely on commercial principles. A man plunges into politics to make his fortune, and only cares that the world shall last his day."

I am not writing this to carp and criticize.

I want to give you a simple CURE.

Ally's clutches. That's why she established residence in Nevada. Not for a divorce, but in case of one. (In California he'd rate half under the community property laws)... Eleanor Roosevelt is reported unhappy about the peddling of her property around her Hyde Park cottage. Very little room left... With so much coal above ground, John L. Lewis has little to gain by a strike at this time. Insiders suspect he wants to take a last poke at Truman for that extravagant fine... Damon Runyon, Jr., of the Journal-American, hasn't witnessed "Guys & Dolls" yet. Because he can't afford it... It's a little for the Gen. Pope, Jr., at Drs. Hosp. Congratulations!... Should Macy Tel. Gimbel note: That's a nice American Legion window Gimbel's has—but someone should place the 3rd Division insignia right-side up before the Rock of the Marne alumni see it and gasp!

Free Cheers: The film, "Has Anybody Seen My Gal?"... Casa Seville's Lou Sella's mad-libbing... Milt Herth's organ-communitizing (for the Legionnaires) at the Piccadilly. Terrific floor show... Alan Dean's platter of "Luna Rosa"... Howard Hawk's direction of "The Big Sky" flicker... The marriage of Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong to Gordon Jenkins' crew at the Paramount Sunday.

Corruption, inefficiency, waste have nothing to do with geography.

They exist in every state, county and municipal government.

And do you know why? Because a large percentage of YOU, the voters, are too lazy, too disinterested or too busy to go to the polls.

Heavens knows, enough has been said and written about the tremendous number of voters who do not exercise their sacred privilege when election day comes along.

They are too busy with what they call "their own affairs" to spend a half hour or an hour to vote.

Yet, it is that very privilege which distinguishes FREE MEN from slaves, which is the one factor that maintains and SAVES our Democracy.

What a terrific howl goes up whenever anybody DARES to attack our two-party system!

What do YOU, the voters, do to uphold it?

There has been a great deal of righteous and rightful indignation because a few graters in Washington have accepted mink coats, refrigerators, television sets and other gratuities.

But indignation alone is not enough. After a while that indignation becomes a fruitful subject for the comedians and the pundits.

Indignation must be accompanied by ACTION.

And ACTION must start on the municipal, the county, the state level.

The other day, a Town Meeting was held in a little community of about 2,000 people.

A $500,000 school project was to be discussed—surely an important matter for a town of 2,000.

Less than 150 people attended and many of those were friends of those most vitally interested in the project.

Civic neglect is often followed by graft, corruption, inefficiency and waste. It is YOU, the voters, who practically INVITE your officials to help themselves to YOUR money.

I should really not say "YOU, the voters," but "WE the voters." My wife and I don't attend all town meetings, either.

Which reminds me of a little verse: "That he was born, it cannot be denied. He ate, drank, slept, TALK'D politics, and died."

—by C. H. Westbrook

10 Years Ago

Hera—In a raid by American planes a young bombardier, Second Lieut. Harry J. Weiss Jr., of Brooklineville, won attention and honors in a sortie in the Tobruk sector. He hit the middle of a supply dump and helped to cause the enemy mile-square fires.

Furlough—A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Seese, Canadensis, in honor of Second Lieutenant Irwin W. Seese, home on a furlough.

War Bonds—In the sale of war bonds at Pocarno Manor there was a ten thousand dollar response. Nicholas Macsoud is directing the Labor Day Ball.

Nurse—Mrs. Mary Fleming, E. S., has been elected school nurse at Hawley.

20 Years Ago

Flower Show—Monroe Garden Club opened a 2-day Flower Show at the Armory. Homer Osborne has a display with rock garden and evergreens. Others with fine displays include N.Y. Flower Shop, Jesse Flory, LaBar Nursery, Wyckoff's, Bixler's, Kisor's, Loder's and H. B. Decker. The Colonial exhibit is in charge of Mrs. Arthur L. Helmes. The tea garden is displayed by Mrs. Beatrice Allen and Mrs. R. L. Burnett.

Party—An "Opposite Party" was held at the Grove House, Marshalls Creek, with men dressed as women and women as men. Glenwood guests from Delaware Water Gap also took part.

Ocean Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ridgeway plan to spend the Labor Day period on an ocean trip to Nova Scotia and other points.

Entertained—Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Snover entertained the Hayes' of Scranton.

Hollywood

—by Gene Handsaker

Hollywood—Betty Hutton's beauty and bounce, some hitting tunes, and colorful song-and-dance spectacles make "Somebody Loves Me" pleasant to watch. The story, however, is on the routine side—the backstage troubles of a couple in show business.

It was "suggested" by the stage careers of singers Blossom Seeley and her husband, Benny Fields. As depicted here, Blossom finds Benny entertaining in a small night club and marries him at the height of her success.

Disgruntled at the snide comments that she is his meal ticket, he strikes out on his own in vaudeville. But he never gets above the small-time until Blossom helps him develop an act that makes him a night-club smash. She thereupon retires—as she did in real life, 20-odd years ago. Fields has continued active in cafes and, now TV.

Miss Hutton's superb figure is displayed handsomely in flashy finery, and the gal certainly can sell a song. Among the picture's 32 tunes are "You've Got Me Crying Again," "Rose Room," "I Cried For You," and three new ones by Jay Livingston and Ray Evans. It's Betty's picture all the way.

Adequate as Fields is ex-Broadwayite Ralph Meeker, who clogs a bit and flashes a handsome smile. His "singing" was done to a track recorded by a radio singer from Vancouver, B. C., named Pat Morgan. Morgan, who has a rich baritone, was heard sug-

The Once Over

—by H. I. Phillips

OPS Transfer. Still another man, Tighe E. Woods, was named the other day to be OPS chief, succeeding, on this occasion, Ellis Arnall, who had endured a short stretch of "Life in the-Mystic Maze of Price Control." There, ceremony was brief but impressive. Mr. Arnall heaved a sigh of great relief, counted his fingers, rubbed his hands across his eyes and said as the switch-over began, "I am still afraid."

"Afraid of what?" he was asked. "Afraid something may happen at the last minute to block my escape," he replied.

He was given reassurance an official copy of the flight blueprint as prepared by the White House with dotted line showing the route and a maltese cross showing the window to be used in the jump.

"Has Tighe shown up?" asked Mr. Arnall fearfully. "Certainly," he was told. "I thought he was too smart to do so," said Arnall. "Are you sure he has not sent a stand-in just as those movie folks do when a particularly dangerous job comes up?"

At this point Mr. Woods appeared on the scene. He looked pale and apprehensive but walked to the new job unsupported and without stimulants.

"Is there no chance of a last minute pardon?" he asked. "None," was the word.

"You'll have to take your punishment like anybody else," said Mr. Arnall.

Mr. Woods gritted his teeth, fingered a rabbit's foot, put a four-leaf clover in his lapel with trembling finger and said audibly, "I AM READY."

The official stamp was put on ing at a party by Charles O'Curran, the picture's dance director and now Betty's husband.

In the supporting cast the stand-out is Billy Bird, as an acid-tongued, Eve Arden-type pal to Miss Hutton. Robert Keith plays her agent...

With the year about two-thirds gone, let's pick some best pictures so far. How about these? Best of all: "Singing in the Rain." Other musicals: "Lovely to Look At," "With a Song in My Heart."

Drama and suspense: "The Atomic City," "High Noon," "My Six Convicts," "Five Fingers," "Phone Call from a Stranger."

How come?

Stratopower
508 Chassis
Featured

All the best in TV programming will soon be available for television as the "regular shows" get underway again this Fall.

Twin City Television, 1186 W.
Main St., Stroudsburg, promises to make them even more enjoyable than they have been in the past with the introduction of Sylvania's new 1953 "Stratopower 508 Chassis."

This new set, which introduces a new standard in "movie-clear" television, is completely new for greater power and performance.

And what is just important for TV enjoyment are the new popular prices, which now make television available for more and more families.

The extra power and balance performance of the new Sylvania Stratopower 508 Chassis, contribute to a greatly extended operating range in distant fringed areas.

Its new Ultrapower Tuner brings new precision in picture performance. The many new engineering developments built into this revolutionary chassis produce new perfection of signal detail and depth in both local, strong-signal areas or remote, weak-signal areas.

The Ultrapower Tuner is the most simplified tuner in the industry. Using only one knob, you can dial all VHF and UHF channels.
Sylvania's new models also introduce a great discovery to reduce picture noise developed in common type tuners. Called the Cascade Amplifier, it is important in fringe areas where weak signals require a lower noise factor. It minimizes "snow" conditions and increases picture detail and definition.

Sylvania is also truly "the world's most beautiful television."
And with its great development, Halo Light, Sylvania television is kinder to your eyes.

Conventional TV sets present the same sharp contrast between a bright picture screen and darker surrounding areas. Sylvania's Halo-
Light, the scientific "Surround Lighting" eliminates that bright-to-dark contrast by utilizing a frame of soft, cool light around the picture screen.

See Sylvania's new 1953 models on display at Twin City Television.
See how Sylvania's newest developments in the electronic field assure you of greater viewing comfort picture clarity. The folks at Twin City feel you will be doubly pleased... by the revolutionary new sets and the attractive, new reduced prices.

Plastic Smocks

Practical and pretty too for the kindergarten set, are plastic smocks. Fine for painting, modeling and floor play, these smocks can be wiped clean with a damp rag and they require little care.
Choose floral prints, bold stripes or transparent plastic fabric.

THE MAZE of wires, resistors and complicated circuits shown above proves no problem to Vito (Pete) Casella, electronic technician for Twin City Television, 1186 W. Main St., Stroudsburg. Kenneth Kruse, co-owner of Twin City with E. R. Felencer, looks on as Casella makes adjustments to the TV receiver. Twin City utilizes all up-to-date electronic facilities, using only factory-approved parts and methods in its TV service department.

DAULTON (MOSE) SERFASS has been a very busy man since he went back in the gasoline business. His Gulf Service Station, corner of Washington & S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, has been a beehive of activity. Mr. Serfass, who easily practices friendly service in his business, reminds his customers: "I like to service cars!" A popular feature with motorists is that they can leave their cars for servicing while enjoying a movie.

KitchenAid
Dishwasher
At Wyckoff's

Truly the "most wanted" home
dishwasher is the new KitchenAid Dishwasher now on display in Wy-ckoff's Electric Shop. This revolutionary new appliance is the result of know-how gained by Hobart, world's oldest and largest maker of commercial dishwashing, food, and kitchen machines, in serving America's hotels and institutions.

Only in KitchenAid do you find a home dishwasher with many exclusive features time-tested and proved under rugged commercial dishwashing conditions plus your ideas of what you would want in the ideal home dishwasher.

This experience means a machine of superb high quality and sturdy construction that means top performance for you at the pressing of a switch.

In the washing operation 2 1/3 gallons of water are pumped through the machine at the rate of 40 gallons per minute. Thus the 2 1/3 gallons are transformed into 200 gallons of water surging over the dishes.

The revolving wash arm, with six openings, provides a thorough distribution of wash streams covering the full area of the racks.
Even pots and pans come out bright and shining unless food is cooked on.

The washing operation is followed by two separate power rinse operations and finally a circulated hot-air drying system produces the finest finishing results.

Yes, it's all done by one press of the switch. KitchenAid is available as a sink and dishwasher combination (KD30), as a free standing table top model (KD20), and as an under-the-counter model
(KD10) for building into custom

C. Williams Mark 52nd Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Williams of the Stokes Hill Road were honored on Saturday by their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren on their 52nd wedding anniversary, with many friends also calling to pay their respects.

The Williams were married August 23, 1880 in Sullivan County by Rev. William Bradford, a Methodist minister. They moved to Monroe County in 1907, and Mr. Williams served as brakeman and conductor on the W. B. and E. Railroad for 41 years until his retirement on Jan. 1, 1941.

His wife is the former Edna E. Knowles.

They moved to their present home at Stokes Hill in 1922, and have three children: Arthur L. Williams, Mrs. Charles P. Martin, and Charles Marvin Williams, as well as 7 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren. They are both active in the Pilgrim Holiness Church in Stroudsburg.

In excellent health, Mr. and Mrs. Williams both enjoyed the celebration on Saturday, and received many gifts and flowers, and an anniversary cake.

Party Marks 16th Birthday Of Pauline Pope

Tobyhanna—Pauline Pope was held on her sixteenth birthday at a party held at Blake's Beechwood, given by her mother, Mrs. Fred Pope and sister, Mrs. Paul Henning.

Those present were Nan Pope, Christine Pope, James Pope, Audrey Regan, Elizabeth Leonard, Gertrude Flaherty, Kathleen Hennessy, Bessie Blake, Gerry Ogilvie, Melrose Keiper, Carl Dailey, Helen and Nancy Quick, Abigail Hennings, Dorothy Dailey, Dorothy Knecht, Edgar Davis, Bruno Hennings, Harry Dailey, Kaye and Betty Keating, Robert Regan, Helen Wandler, Thoms Pope, Nelson Saxe, William Flaherty and guests at the Beechwood.

The dining room was decorated with streamers and flowers and the center table held a large cake. Games and dancing were enjoyed and refreshments were served.

J., Hans Mittenmeyer, Mrs. Lucille Sicker and Mrs. Helen Sicker.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

The moonlight shining last night on the bounding Broadheads Creek at least gave some hope that you'll be able to get to all the meetings I've put in the calendar for your benefit without using a rowboat. For a while there yesterday, it was a question whether houseboat travelers were going to get drowned before or after their accident.

Well, anyway, it's a good thing you're home now safe and sound because you're going to have your work cut out for you these next few weeks. The typewriter has learned to write all by itself "The first fall meeting of the --".

But besides the first regular fall meeting, you've a number of special engagements. Including the visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile next Friday. It's sort of a shock to hear we're falling behind because we just don't do that.

We do poke and pry, though—and it was sort of funny on Sunday to watch the faces of the people who slipped up to see how the work was coming in the sanctuary at the Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church. They thought a bomb had fallen—the entire ceiling was on the floor and you could see right up to the slates on the roof.

And we do enjoy good music—everybody was looking for George Graff after the service on Sunday to tell him how they'd enjoyed the words in the song he'd written, and which Margaret Oldorf had sung.

He was almost as elusive as some of the weekend weddings. However, we'll catch up with all of them sooner or later.

—Listen To— Bobby Westbrook daily, Monday through Friday, on "The Party Line" WVPO, 10:15 a.m.

Local Herd Of Reindeer At Convention

A delegation from Stroudsburg Herd No. 12, Ladies Independent Order of Reindeer attended the 30th annual convention held in New York City last week. Mrs. Hattie Cramer, representative of the local herd, was accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Jordan, Mrs. Hazel Gage, Mrs. Janet Brimer, Mrs. Elsie Hinton, Mrs. Nettie Smith, Mrs. Catherine Rice and Mrs. Louise Weber.

Mrs. Rice was named supreme deputy over Allentown Herd No. 60. The convention also elected as its supreme president Mrs. Wilhelmina Hook, of Grant Herd No. 19, Easton.

Many of the local women saw the American Legion Parade, and visited points of interest in New York City.

Their next convention will be held in Baltimore, Md., in August 1933.

Outdoor Art Show Proves Successful

The second weekend of the Outdoor Art Show held in the Courthouse Square again drew many visitors, and new artists to display their pictures.

A number of the artists reported they had sold pictures during the outdoor show, the first of its kind attempted by the local artists.

Newcomers this past weekend were Henrietta Hobbs, Arlene Fritz, Betty Hartman, Mary Bondra Weingartner, who has studied with Browne in Gloucester, Mass., and Violet Clark, who featured masks.

In addition Sterling Strausser who is currently exhibiting at Woodstock, N.Y., had on exhibit a new picture, and Dave Miller again was "artist-at-work" for the edification of visitors who watched him painting.

In all there were 300 pictures exhibited during the two weekends, by 39 exhibitors who hope to make it an annual affair.

Kathleen Merola Is Baptized By Rev. G. T. Rinehart

Kathleen Sue Merola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Merola, was baptized on Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian Church of Stroudsburg. Rev. Graham T. Rinehart, the baby's uncle, administered the sacrament.

Mr. Rinehart, a former Stroudsburg resident, is pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church of Berwick, and was guest minister at the local church on Sunday morning.

The service was also marked by a solo by Miss Margaret Oildorf, "Teach Me To Pray," the words of which were written by George Graff Jr., of Stroudsburg.

PROVE TO YOURSELF THAT ELECTRIC WATER HEATING TOPS THEM ALL!

Hot Water is just about your most important housekeeping aid... you use it a hundred and more times a day... so, when you switch to an automatic water heater, do this. Choose it on the facts... and the facts alone. Ask your local electric appliance retailer... or your plumber... to tell you about all the advantages of electric water heating. Yes... let him show you the matchless combination of "reasonably priced" electric water heating... is improving the hot water supply of more and more homes each and every day.

You'll learn such electric water heating facts as these:

- CAREFREE
No fuel to order, no steps to climb. Completely automatic.
- SAFE
Flameless heating unit is inside the fully insulated tank. Children can play around heater without fear of accidents.
- CLEAN
As clean as an electric light bulb. Creates no dirt, fumes, soot or other residues.
- COOL
Like a giant thermos bottle, it's always cool on the outside, yet water's always hot inside.
- CONVENIENT
Needs no flue or chimney connections. Install it anywhere. Economize with short, direct runs of piping.

These are but some of the advantages of electric water heating. See your electric appliance retailer or plumber today. Have him tell you all about the efficiency and economy of an electric water heater... and arrange for delivery of yours as soon as possible.

Baby Shower Is Given For Mrs. Staples

A baby shower was held on Friday night in honor of Mrs. Dorothy Staples, at her home on Stokes Mill Road, by a group of friends and relatives.

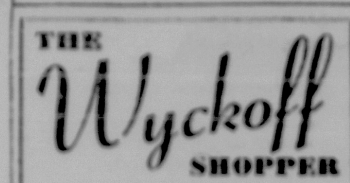

One of the guests was the new baby's aunt, Berta Mae Taffinger, who is only a few months' older herself. Also present but not in the picture was Mrs. Chester Staples.

Among those who sent gifts were Mrs. Lew Miller, Mrs. Harold Griffiths, Mrs. Hanna Boppy, Mrs. Geraldine Bonser, Mrs. Wilma Rogalski, Mrs. Howard George, Mrs. Betty Post, Mrs. Betty Miller, Miss Berneta Roth, Mrs. Elizabeth Shupp, Mrs. Janet Brimer, Mrs. Irvin Bulis, Alice Stettler and Mrs. Kenneth Staples and daughter.

Tour West

Mr. and Mrs. Halsey M. Melvin returned from a two-week vacation spent touring the North and South Dakota Bad Lands, Sacred Canyon and the Black Hills. They also visited Wisconsin's Dells.

Rice is the staple food for more than half the world's population.

Good morning! So much has been happening at Wyckoff's during the past few weeks, this initial column after vacation is going to be particularly difficult to write. Filling it, when there's so much one might say, is like putting one thing into a basket only to see that two more have appeared out of nowhere.

I might tell you, for instance, that Mr. J. L. Kerlin, our general manager, has already met with the store promotion committee and outlined Christmas plans down to the last small detail. Even now I could tell you just how, when and where Santa will arrive, and some of the wonderful gifts that will find their way into his pack this year. But after all, there's plenty of time for that.

I could also mention that this morning will find Ruth Widmer back in the luggage and umbrella department after several months away while her broken foot proved its right to be out of a cast once again. But of course, when you are in the store today you'll see her yourself—so why waste space? We'll all be glad to have Ruthie back, that's for sure. But, if you ask me, it's another bad break for her that the store wasn't open yesterday. Can't you just picture the umbrellas she'd have sold when the hurricane's after-thought was at its height?

Many of my spare thoughts yesterday were connected with Peter Wyckoff, whose vacation began Saturday night and who is spending the first week on the shore of a northern Pennsylvania lake. Imagine! A lake at your front door and a river flowing over the roof. Later Peter and his wife will journey on to the west coast—and fair weather, we hope.

Also vacationing at the moment is Mae Colman, our Wyckoff's correspondent. While she is missed, business goes on much as usual, with Rae Horst proudly displaying the new shipment of Farmost girdles—all nylon, combining fabric and mesh—that are selling at an unbelievably low $3.98.

New too are the beautiful Tea Room draperies that frame those huge-and-handsome scenes of Monroe County set into each window frame. Oh, there's news at Wyckoff's—always. Lots of it. So much in fact, that right now I'm hardly the girl to cope with the situation. And being tired of just floundering around, until tomorrow at least, I'll end it all. Here goes! PERIOD.

Red Cross Seeking Polio Nurses Here

The local chapter of the American Red Cross on Saturday received an urgent appeal from the national Red Cross to use every means at its disposal to assist in the recruitment of nurses to serve in the polio epidemic areas in the Eastern and Mid-Western areas.

The plea has gone out for 132 nurses, with emphasis on enlisting nurses not now actively employed, or those who can be released from their present positions, who are willing to serve for a two-month period.

Special training in nursing poliomyelitis patients is not necessary as on-the-job training will be provided.

As of August 16, there were 16,437 polio cases, which presses close on the number of this date during 1939, epidemic year. The Red Cross had already recruited 500 nurses to serve in stricken areas.

Mrs. Ida Kunkle, executive secretary, immediately called on the local Registered Nurses Association and Mrs. Martha Kintz, Red Cross nursing chairman, for assistance in making the appeal, which also has been broadcast over the local radio station.

Registered nurses in the area willing to serve have been asked to call Red Cross headquarters, 357, immediately.

You can make attractive tea sandwiches if you will take care to slice the bread very thin, and trim off the crusts.

Hems Drop In New Fall Fashions

Paris (U.S.)—The 1952 fall and winter silhouette, as decreed by French fashion experts, is a compromise that should suit most figures. It's neither too full nor too slim.

The hems have dropped an inch or two to 12 inches from the floor.

Women who like to nip in their figures with tight belts at the waistline will have to turn to Christian Dior this season. Nearly all the other designers leave the waist loose and low for a middy effect.

Daytime necklines are modestly high in the new fashions, but they get lower and lower on cocktail, dinner and dance dresses.

Dark and sober colors lead the field this time. Black, dark grey, brown and beige predominate, relieved a bit by some dark reds, purples and blue-greens.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

This column would like to open this morning's bit of chit-chat with a suggestion that the Pocono Mountains League hold a special meeting before the annual post-season playoffs begin, to rule on Ray Steele, as a pitcher with the Bushkill entry in the circuit. I think it only fair to Steele, one of the best campaigners this writer has ever witnessed in action, and to the Bushkill club in general for the league to make an official ruling on the long hurler's eligibility. Bushkill reportedly received permission from the league's officials to work, but I believe it takes a vote of the league membership to make him officially eligible.

I also believe that an official verdict, if rendered in favor of Steele and the Bushkill club, would lift the terrific amount of pressure currently on the long right-hander, who recently signed a 1953 contract with the A's, to report to their Ottawa farm, in the International League, next Spring. Tannersville lodged a protest with the umpires on Sunday, when Steele came into the ball game in the eighth frame. However, since Tannersville went on to win in 10 innings, the number four contingent in the current standings will probably drop the protest.

Ray relieved Dick Miller with the score deadlocked at 2-2, and although he had his strikeout pitch working once again, Ray made the mistake of pitching high and outside to pinch-hitter Les "Bruno" Doll in the bottom of the 10th, with Bob Hallet on second. Doll drove the ball over the right field fence for an automatic double, approximately 250 feet from home plate. Ray fanned six batters in the two and two-thirds innings he worked, while experiencing trouble with his control and walking three batters during the same tour of duty. Doll, Tannersville's number two receiver, was batting for Mike Bonser, the winning club's first string receiver.

Tannersville had called off its game with Bushkill, due to wet grounds and light showers. However, the two teams were ordered to play by the league. A hurried search for umpires featured regular ump Del Davis behind the plate and Jack Kist, football and baseball coach at East Stroudsburg High, on the bases. The field was actually too wet for baseball, but the game went off without incident, although the home club was forced to use a couple of more balls than would have been put into play ordinarily.

There aren't many curve balls in the Pocono Mountains League that can lead the one thrown by Al Kresge, who is also faster than a first observation would indicate. The Tannersville hurler might have defeated Bushkill in regulation time, if it wasn't for eight glaring errors by his supporting cast. A Kunkelton delegation, headed by Manager Clarence Smith, was on hand to watch the Tannersville-Bushkill contest, which lasted more than three hours, much of the time consumed by the constant change of balls.

Sunday's light showers and threatening weather and yesterday's all-day rain, washed out the biggest racing card of the current season at the Stroudsburg Speedway, which had stock cars listed for Sunday and new cars for yesterday. The Monday program would have really attracted a standing room only crowd, but the weatherman had other ideas. However, the stocks will be back at the track located near the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg airport next Sunday. The reopening of the West End Speedway, listed for yesterday, was also washed off the books by the heavy rains. It appears that the West End track will operate for the remainder of the season.

Doug Schoonover, outfielder with Pocono A. C., and director of the Stroudsburg Playground during the past summer months, has returned to his teaching duties at Fairview Township High School, in Mountain Top, Pa. Bill Schmidt, former basketball and tennis star at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, stopped off to visit with his many friends in this area on Thursday. Bill is preparing to enter the University of Richmond, after spending the summer as a counselor at a camp on Lake Champlain, in New York state. Bill was named to the second All-Pennsylvania Teachers College game machine last winter.

Karl Weingartner was back at his regular shortstop berth with Tannersville on Sunday, after recovering from an injured foot, which occurred when the Stroudsburg High athlete stepped on a nail. Karl is also back working out with the Stroudsburg High football machine. The turnout for today's renewal of football practice at East Stroudsburg High School may be one of the largest to ever attend a practice session in the history of the sport up on N. Courtland St.

Harry Warner, a native of Reeds and former star first baseman for the Stroudsburg Poconos, won both ends of a doubleheader for Evansville, of the class "B" Three-1 League recently, against the Keokuk foe. Harry doubled home the winning run in the seventh inning of the opening game, to give Evansville a 4-3 victory over Keokuk. However, Harry was even more of a hero in the nightcap, when he hit a tremendous home run over the right field wall, in the 11th inning, to give Evansville another 4-3 decision. Harry, recently recovered from a slump, is hitting .272. Warner has been to the plate 382 times, scored 82 runs, batted out 104 hits; 17 doubles, five triples, a dozen homers and has driven 69 runs across the plate.

Lake Harmony Takes Measure Of Anomalink In Major Tilt

Henryville—Lake Harmony kept its hopes of winning a post-season playoff over the Pocono Mountains League alive here on Sunday, with a 12-9 victory over Anomalink, on the losing squad's home field. The free scoring contest was halted after eight full innings of action because of inclement weather.

Two Racing Programs Bow To Weather

Stroudsburg Speedway was washed out of its biggest racing weekend of the season on Sunday and yesterday, as the weatherman sent heavy rains and dismal weather to haunt the territory and make racing extremely dangerous. Threatening weather and light showers resulted in the postponement of Sunday's scheduled stock car action, while heavy all-day rains completely washed out yesterday's long awaited new car racing program.

No announcements were made about the possibility of rescheduling the new car races, but it was made public that there would be stock car racing every Sunday for the remainder of the season. The season is expected to last as long as the weatherman permits. Some of the leading stock car drivers in the east are scheduled to be on hand next Sunday, when one of the largest fields of the season is slated to go through its paces before a large crowd at the half-mile dirt oval.

Stroudsburg Speedway is located off Route 209, near the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg Airport.

Senators Earn Even Break With Athletics

Washington (AP)—Julio Moreno held Philadelphia to four hits as Washington won the second game of a doubleheader, 4-2, after the Athletics captured the opener, 9-8, in 10 innings despite two home runs by the Senators' Ken Wood yesterday.

Gil Coan led an eight-hit attack on Carl Scheib with a home run and a triple in the second game as Moreno squared his record at 9-9.

The Athletics mauled Connie Marrero and Don Johnson, the loser, for 15 hits in the first game, with Billy Hitchcock and Joe Astroth getting three each. Scheib delivered a pinch single with one out in the 10th to lift the A's to triumph after Hitchcock and Astroth had singled, Bob Hooper, fourth of five Phila-

Winning Club Sure Of Fourth Place Deadlock

Tannersville—A double to right by Les "Bruno" Doll in the bottom of the 10th inning on Sunday assured Tannersville of at least a tie for fourth place in the final standings of the Pocono Mountains League, as the charges of Manager Werkheiser scored a 3-2 decision over Bushkill, with Ray Steele, recently signed by the Philadelphia A's, charged with his second setback of the campaign, to go with 10 victories.

Although Tannersville committed eight errors behind Al Kresge, the youthful right hander was able to stay on even terms with Dick Miller, who pitched the first seven frames for the Bushkill club.

Kresge came up with one of the best pitching performances he has turned in this season, retiring seven batters on strikes, walking four and giving up only five hits. Tannersville accounted for 11 safeties off Miller and Steele during the 10 inning marathon that lasted over three hours under sloppy playing conditions.

Several of Tannersville's eight defensive blunders set up single runs for Bushkill in the third and seventh innings. However, Tannersville came back in the fifth and seventh rounds to gain a tie at that point. The second run for the home team crossed the plate on a perfect squeeze-bunt by Horace Johnson.

Steele took over the Bushkill pitching in the eighth and Kresge remained on the hill for the Tannersville contingent, as the small crowd braved the dismal weather to see the contest to a finish.

Neither team threatened seriously until Tannersville won in the 10th, as Steele fanned six and walked three during his two and two-thirds innings on the hill. The lanky right-hander retired the Tannersville club on strikes in the 10th.

However, the home club wasn't to be denied in the 10th, as George Hartshorn opened the frame by going down on strikes. However, Bob Hallet drew a walk and went to second while Leon "Spike" Werkheiser was being called out on strikes.

Manager Werkheiser decided at this point to send Doll up to bat for Mike Bonser, first string receiver. Doll slapped the first pitch, a high-outside shot, 250 feet over the fence in right field for an automatic double, allowing Hallet to score from second with the winning run.

Castellani Gains Ring Decision

Brooklyn, (AP)—Rocky Castellani, 1994, Luzerne, Pa., scored a unanimous 20-round decision over Johnny Lombardo, 153, Mt. Carmel, Pa., at the Eastern Parkway Arena last night.

Castellani, high-ranking middleweight, was floored for the mandatory count of eight early in the first round but got up and boxed himself out of trouble. Lombardo also had his veteran rival in trouble in the eighth and ninth rounds but each time Castellani called on his experience to regain the edge.

The two judges, Americo Chivone and Jim Crowley, each gave Castellani six rounds and Lombardo four. Referee Harry Ebbs saw it 6-3-1.

Tannersville Clips Bushkill In Tenth

Eight teams are set to battle through the Gold Medal Softball Tournament that gets under way on two fronts today at 6 p. m. The tournament is being sponsored by the Monroe County YMCA. Those clubs entered in the tournament are urged to hand in their rosters, of not more than 15 names, and the eight dollars admission fee prior to today's encounters.

The opening day schedule will send Tobyhanna against IAM at the East Stroudsburg Junior High School field, while Kulp's Foundry and Worthington Mower cross bats at Stroudsburg Playground.

Tomorrow's agenda will feature Union Printers and the Eagles at Stroudsburg Playground, while Bushkill A's and Tru-Matic come to blows at the East Stroudsburg Junior High School field at the same time.

Semi-final round games will be played Thursday, with Friday being held open as a rain date.

The first round will be judged on the best two-out-of-three game basis and will be played early next week. Forest Fabel and Jack Berg-

Seminole Defeat Cherokees In Final Swim Meet At Shawnee

Shawnee-on-Delaware—Led by Captain Johnny Walter, the underdog Seminoles captured a 47-33 victory over the Cherokees in a pre-Labor Day swimming meet held here in the Shawnee pool on Saturday. The event marked the end of the competitive swimming season at Shawnee for this year.

Walter splashed to victory over Fred Waring Jr., captain of the Cherokees, in the opening event, the 30-yard freestyle. Linton Patterson, of the Cherokee tribe, finished third.

Judy Cramer and Winne Walter gave the Seminoles a first and second in the 30-yard freestyle event for girls. Betsy Park, Cherokee, was third. John Walzer came back in the third event to win the boys' breast stroke event, with Marty Walzer and Bruce Ruffner, both of the Cherokees, came home second and third.

Special Event
A special event featured Laird Patterson, Seminole, in a victory over Tommy Stitt, Cherokee, Kitey King and Judy Cramer gave the Seminoles a first and second in the girls' breast stroke event, with Carole Burnley, Cherokee, finishing third.

Fred Waring Jr., came back to win the backstroke for his team, while Jim McClintock, Seminole, and Ruffner, Cherokee, finished second and third respectively. Judy Cramer won her second event when she gave the Seminoles a first place finish in the back stroke event for girls, while Linda Lee and Betsy Park, both of the Cherokees, finished second and third respectively.

Young Waring won his second event in the 60-yard freestyle, while McClintock placed second for the Seminoles and Marty Walzer came home third for the Cherokees. The Seminoles won the medley relay for boys as McClintock, John Walzer and Jim Stitt swam the back stroke, breast stroke, and freestyle respectively.

The Seminoles also won the relay for girls, with Winnie Walzer, Kitey King and Judy Cramer. Linton Patterson, Marty Walzer, Ruffner and young Waring formed the winning Cherokee team in the final event, the relay for boys.

Honorary chiefs for the event were Poley McClintock, Seminoles, and Earl Evans, director of athletic activities, for the Cherokees.

Labor Day Racing Off
Allentown—The Labor Day stock car racing program was washed out here yesterday, but the usual Wednesday program will take place this week at Dorney Park. Wednesday's feature event will be 25 laps and a field of 60 will take part in the action. Neil Reintner and Fred Fehr, two of the season's top winners, will be in the field.

Newfoundland Falls Before Daleville, 6-2

Newfoundland—Daleville took a step in the direction of the Pocono Mountains Association championship on Sunday, when the invading nine scored four times in the top of the ninth inning to down the Bears, 6-2, and break up a tight pitching duel.

Daleville was scheduled to tangle with Tobyhanna for the circuit title yesterday, but heavy rain forced postponement of the contest. Although no official word has been received, it is quite probable that the two foes will clash at Daleville next Sunday. The regular season ended in a three-way tie for first place.

The visiting Daleville contingent reached "Buck" Hutchins for a single run in the second, only to have the Bears come back with two in the fifth to take a short lived lead. Squeeze Art Barnes dropped a squeeze bunt in front of the plate and Dick Dunning raced home as did Ray Van Benscoten, when pitcher Fred Haines threw wildly to first base trying to catch Barnes.

However, Daleville came back to even the count with a singleton in the top of the eighth. But, the visiting contingent actually won the game with four big runs in the top of the ninth, the big blow being a double by Manager Frank Kurziel, with runners on second and third base.

Bill "Lefty" Herring relieved Hutchins with one out in the ninth, but it was too late to change the tide of battle.

Royals Open Drills Today

Tobyhanna—The University of Scranton football team, under the direction of head coach Pete Carlisimo, will open pre-season training here at the Little Flower Camp today, with 37 players in attendance.

The group will also include assistant coaches Jack Koniszewski, Tony Lawrence and Father John J. Coniff, S.J., athletic director at Scranton school.

Location
Little Flower Camp is located on Lake Number One in this area. The Royals previously trained at Oxbow Lake, near Tunkhannock.

Carlismo announced last night that the training schedule will consist of two workouts daily, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon.

Scranton will break camp on the night of Saturday, September 13.

Kroll Triumphs In Insurance Open

Wethersfield, Conn. (AP)—Playing in strong winds and heavy rains which uprooted several small trees along the course, Ted Kroll of New Hartford, N. Y., captured the first annual $15,000 Insurance City Open golf tournament yesterday with a 72-hole total of 273, 11 under par.

The surging Kroll, who caught fire Sunday, whacked out birdies on the first two holes to draw even with a slipping Skee Riegel, of Tulsa, Okla.

White Sox Strengthen Bench

Chicago, (AP)—The Chicago White Sox announced yesterday they had bolstered their bench by acquiring outfielder "Hank" Edwards from the Cincinnati Reds of the National League.

Deal
The Sox said they received Edwards in a trade for a Sox player to be named during the coming winter. Before the deal could be made, Edwards was waived by all National League clubs, the Sox said.

Father, Daughter Injured In Collision Near Effort

Brodheadsburg—A father and daughter from Elizabeth, N. J., were injured Sunday morning when their car was struck in the side by another vehicle on Route 115, 10 miles north of here.

Brodheadsburg State police said Richard Harris, 50, was pulling out of a private driveway at 11:45 a. m., when his car was hit in the left side by an auto operated by John Tregan, 29, of Luzerne, Pa.

Harris suffered body and face bruises. His daughter, Ricki Ann, 3, had bruises and a cut lip. Both were treated by Dr. James Kitchen, Pocono Lake. Tregan was uninjured.

Police said it was foggy when the accident occurred. Damages were $500 to the Tregan car and $100 to the Harris car.

Driver Fined After Crash

Blakeslee — Walter Olenik, 31, Wilkes-Barre, was fined $10 and costs for reckless driving yesterday following a two-car collision on Route 115 five miles south of here.

Brodheadsburg State police said he pulled out to pass the car of Joseph Trontski, 26, Lebanon RD 2, N.Y., but pulled back to the right because of on-coming traffic and struck the Trontski car.

Damages were $40 to Trontski's vehicle and $35 to the Olenik car. Both were moving south at the time.

Olenik was fined by Isaac Dyson, Long Pond Justice of the peace.

Car Shears Off Pole, Rips Fence

Saylorsburg—A car snapped off a telephone pole and tore up some barbed wire fencing a mile north of here on Route 115 at 9:50 a. m. Sunday.

The driver, Charles W. Mitchell, 28, Philadelphia, was uninjured, according to Brodheadsburg State police. Mitchell told investigators he started to pass a car when the other vehicle began a left turn off the highway.

Mitchell swerved to avoid a collision, went off the highway to the left, snapped off the telephone pole, tore up barbed wire and knocked over two fence posts on the property of Ambrose Altomose, Saylorsburg, police said.

Damage to the car was estimated at $300.
